

NATURAL CLIMBERS Log Climber

NAT-000064

- Sealed and treated for water resistance
- Built to meet CSA standards
- Configuration may slightly vary
- Vertical play opportunities

Built to meet CSA standards, the log climber offers an abundance of skill development for the risk-taking adventurer. Our climbers are sealed and treated for water resistance. When used in combination with additional climbing components, the climber encourages role-play and its versatility knows no bounds. Whether imagination takes children to the bow of a pirate ship or the peak of the tallest mountain, the natural log climber is the perfect vantage point for every quest.
